DISTRICT
NATIONAL PARK

DEEMED PLANNING APPLICATION FEE PAYMENT FORM

If you have submitted an appeal under ground (a) against the enforcement notice, you must pay the required fee to the Authority by the date given to you by the Planning Inspectorate in their Start Letter.

You can pay the deemed application to the Authority by one of the following methods, using the payment slip below:-

- Payment by BACS
- Payment by cheque/postal order
- Payment by debit/credit card
- Payment by cash *

Please Note: If the required fee is not paid to the Authority by the date given to you in the Start Letter from PINS, neither the deemed planning application nor any appeal on ground (a) will be considered. If other grounds have been pleaded, your appeal will proceed on those grounds alone. If your appeal is made on ground (a) only and you do not pay the fee, your appeal will lapse and, if there are no other appeals against it, the enforcement notice will come into effect.
